FACULTY

Angie Meehleder is the Quality Assurance/Customer Service Manager for the Centralized Credentials Verification Service (CCVS). She is knowledgeable in all processes in all areas. Prior experience, education and insight has helped in her responsibilities in the goals of this state agency.

Lynda M. Johnson is a partner with Friday, Eldredge & Clark, LLP in Little Rock, Arkansas. She has practiced in health law since 1986 representing a wide variety of healthcare provider including hospitals, physicians, physician groups, nursing homes and home health agencies. Recently, her practice has revolved, to a large extent, around representation of hospitals and physicians in HIPAA compliance efforts and other areas of regulatory compliance. Her practice also includes issues involving Stark I and II and Anti-Kickback compliance, Medicare/Medicaid reimbursement, corporate compliance issues, physician and hospital organization issues, managed care, healthcare and hospital law, long term care and home health. Selected for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America in Health Law, Ms. Johnson received her Bachelors of Professional Accountancy degree from Mississippi State University and her JD from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law.

Kendra Booth, Provider Credentialing Coordinator brings 15 years of experience with Arkansas Blue Cross Blue Shield. She coordinates credentialing, contracting, and recredentialing of practitioners and providers. Kendra communicates changes to internal and external parties; establishes and maintains relationships with entities with which credentialing or recredentialing is delegated; ensures compliance with credentialing processes, policies and procedures; and compiles quality analysis reports.

Donna Middaugh, PhD, RN has been with the UAMS College of Nursing for 23 years. During that time she has served as faculty in the BSN & MNSc programs, Coordinator of the Nursing Administration Masters Specialty and Associate Dean for Academic Programs. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing, a Master of Nursing Science in nursing administration and education and a PhD in healthcare administration. Previous to joining UAMS, she served as a pediatric critical care nurse and risk manager for a 4-hospital system in Texas. Her current role as Associate Dean oversees the College of Nursing BSN, RN, Masters and PhD programs.

Matthew Hadley, RN, DNP, PNP-BC, FNP-BC, APN is Clinical Assistant Professor and Specialty Coordinator, Pediatric Nurse Practitioner and CNS Specialty with the UAMS College of Nursing. He is a NAPNAP member and practices with the Little Rock Pediatric Clinic, KIDS Telehealth Program. Dr. Hadley received his MSN/FNP from the University of Texas Health Sciences Center, San Antonio.

Jackie Gray, RN, MNSc, EdD is the program coordinator for Advanced Practice Nursing with the Arkansas State Board of Nursing. Jackie has worked for the Arkansas State Board of Nursing for a total of 11 years and in the present position for almost 5 years. Her current responsibilities include regulating, monitoring and advising advanced practice nurses, approving applicants for licensure and prescriptive authority, investigating complaints, presenting educational seminars, researching trends and issues that impact regulation, and interpreting the Arkansas Nurse Practice Act and rules related to advanced nursing practice and other areas. She has 14 years of teaching experience in both associate degree and bachelor degree nursing education programs and 20 years of clinical experiences in acute care settings.
